

TAU BETA PI

THE ENGINEERING HONOR SOCIETY
TEXAS ALPHA CHAPTER

ENGINEERING AND EXCELLENCE IN ENGINEERING

Tau Beta Pi (TBP) is an interdisciplinary engineering honor society that recognizes students with high academic achievement and a commitment to personal and professional integrity.

TAU BETA PI MEMBERSHIP

Eligible candidates are in the top eighth of their Junior class or the top fifth of their Senior class within all disciplines of the Cockrell School of Engineering.

CORPORATE SUPPORT

Throughout the semester, TBP invites corporate partners to present at virtual general meetings. In partnering with TBP, supporters will receive recognition and credit on our website, newsletters, and advertising for our events, in addition to opportunities to connect with our members. For more information about the TBP chapter at UT, please visit <http://tbtexasalpha.org>.

SPRING OPPORTUNITIES FOR CORPORATE INVOLVEMENT:

Event Type	Description	Pricing	Dates
Fall 2020 General Meetings	General meetings reach out to our entire honor society including members from all engineering disciplines. For these meetings, corporate partners have 30 minutes to present and answer questions. Due to COVID-19, we have adjusted our operating costs accordingly. General meetings are one of the best ways to network with our members as there are usually over 85 students in attendance!	$1000 $350	Thursdays, 6:30 PM October 15 November 5, 19 and/or Flexible
Lunch & Learns	For more intimate conversation, Lunch & Learn events present an opportunity for corporate partners to present their unique line of work to a smaller group of TBP members over a virtual lunch setting. Usually 20+ members attend these events.	$300 $150	Flexible
Professional Development Event	Support TBP in a professional development session through a virtual workshop or an event of your choosing! Topics have included resume reviews, case interview workshops, or even mock interviews!	$500 $150	Flexible
Service or Social	Partner/donate with TBP during a service or social event!	$100	Flexible
Initiation Banquet	Join TBP in celebrating our newest initiates at the end of the semester in a virtual setting! Initiation banquet attracts the best from our current membership, all of whom are excited to get to know representatives beyond the podium. This event is a great chance to inspire 50+ formally-dressed future professionals.	$500 $150	Flexible
